2014 Lodging Season: April 1-Nov. 30, 2014

Fort Robinson State Park, Nebraska's largest state park, offers some of the most unique overnight lodging opportunities in Nebraska. Stay overnight in the fully-furnished former officer and enlisted men's quarters. Modern and primitive campsites are also available.

The Lodge

The Lodge

(1909 Enlisted Men's Barracks)

The Lodge is the focal point at the park and is the main location to start your visit to Fort Robinson. The Lodge includes the park office, brochures and information about park activities and the surrounding area. The Fort Robinson Inn Restaurant is located in the Lodge and serves meals from Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day. The menu offers a wide variety of menu choices and can cater your event. There are 22 lodge rooms each with private bathroom and shower. Each unit is air conditioned and heated. Pets are not allowed in the Lodge.

Adobe

Adobe

(1887 Officers' Quarters)

The Adobes are perfect for those larger groups and family reunions. Each Adobe is a duplex unit with two separate lodging opportunities on both sides. They may be reserved together or separately. There are five Adobes that sleep 10 and five Adobes that sleep 12. These spacious accommodations include a living area; bathroom with tub and shower; and kitchen equipped with stove, refrigerator, coffee maker, microwave, toaster, dishes, utensils, bedding and linens. The sleep-10 Adobes have two queen beds and three sets of bunk beds. The sleep-12 Adobes have two queen beds and four sets of bunk beds. Picnic table and charcoal grill make these a great location to gather.
